Mr. Valdez’s Classroom Rules

Attendance is mandatory.
1. Come to class and be on time and ready to work when the bells ring.
2. If you are late, you must bring me a note.
3. If you are absent, your parent should call in your absence to the attendance office AND you should contact me via e-mail that day.

Turn in your work on time.
1. We will follow an A – C – F – Zero policy.
   a) Assignments turned in on time may receive full credit (Up to 100%).
   b) Assignments turned in one day late may receive a grade of C (75%) or lower.
   c) Assignments turned in two days late will receive a grade of F (50%).
   d) Assignments more than two days late will receive a grade of Zero.
2. All assignments due the day of your absence must be turned in upon your return.
3. All tests taken on the day of the absence must be taken on the day of your return.
4. Due dates for multiple day absences will be worked out between the student and the teacher via e-mail on the day of the absence.

Be mentally present.
1. Listen to and follow all directions.
2. Participate in the class.
3. Turn off your cell phone.
4. Work only on this class.
5. Write down everything.

Always do your best work.
1. Do your own work in class and at home.
2. Write neatly and in complete sentences.

Be respectful of others in your actions and words.
1. Respect others’ rights to learn.
2. Respect others’ time.
3. Act with integrity and honesty at all time.

Failure to follow these rules will result in consequences that include, but are not limited to: Referral to your dean, loss of credit for an assignment or test, temporary loss or confiscation of personal property (cell phone, other homework), loss of extra credit opportunities, or other suitable consequences. All negative consequences are/will be consistent with school board and school policy.

This list of rules may be amended as needed.

I acknowledge that I have read and understood these classroom rules and agree to follow them during the semester.
